RE: Stephen John Casey, Sr. v. Steven O'Brien,
Civil Action No. 04-11940-PBS

Dear Ms. Thornton:

I received documents that were delivered to me at the North Correctional Institute. Before I was released the staff filed into their computer, my address I was going to and other personal information. When I asked why they were taking such information, I was told this was solely for them to forward my mail to me. I'm guessing this did not turn out to be true?

However; after reviewing all the materials filed by the by the Attorney General in this case, I have come to the conclusion I cannot understand that complex level of law to be able to properly respond. If this can go forward on what has been submitted, with a good review, I have nothing further to add at this point.

Respectfully Submitted,

Stephen John Casey, Sr.
